art. 2

Description of the degree awards and recipients

The degree award of master's thesis, of the value of €2,000.00 gross and net of taxes, the cost of which is borne by the Politecnico di Milano, will be given to the best dissertation covering topics connected to: "Seismic Engineering and Seismic Risk".

Students who have completed their Laurea Magistrale (equivalent to Master of Science) programme in the following course at the Politecnico di Milano may participate:

- Ingegneria Civile – Civil Engineering
- Ingegneria per L'Ambiente e il Territorio – Environmental and Land Planning Engineering
- Civil Engineering for Risk Mitigation
- over the period spanning January 2023 to December 2023
- with a final degree score of no lower than 105/110

Fundraising and Alumni Unit will verify that candidates are in possession of the necessary requirements.

art. 3

How to participate

Applicants must submit the application by way of the specific function available from the online Services <http://www.polimi.it/servizionline> (Agevolazioni e Convenzioni > Borse di studio, premi di laurea, esoneri, bandi generici [Subsidies and Conventions > Scholarships, degree prizes, exonerations, generic notices]) by 12 noon (Italian time) on 3 May 2024.

Candidates must attach, by way of the relevant procedure:

- their degree dissertation of master's thesis in PDF format, with a maximum file size of 10MB

The file must be named with Surname-First Name-Document Type.pdf (for example, Rossi-Mario-Dissertation.pdf)

The online closure of the application equates to submitting the application for participation in this call and involves the acceptance of what is contained in the same. It is the Applicant's responsibility to verify the correct conclusion of the process.

After the closure of the application, a receipt may be printed and the application may no longer be changed. The Applicant will have the opportunity to cancel the application and re-submit a new one by the call deadline.

Any failure to close the application or the incompleteness of the same involves exclusion from the assessment process.

In the case of dissertations with multiple authors, each co-author who wishes to compete for the award must present their application for participation individually.

art. 4 Adjudicating Committee

The allocation of the degree award is decided according to a ranking put together by an adjudicating committee nominated after the deadline for the tender has passed, with a managerial decree.

When formulating the ranking, the committee will decide on the basis of the dissertation attached and of the MSc academic career.

Preference will be given to those who have explored topics that are closely related to seismic risk.

On the condition that the requirements referred to in art. 2 of the tender have been met and in the case of an ex-aequo placing, the committee may decide to split the prize between multiple candidates.

It is possible that the adjudicating committee may not award the prize being competed for, in the event that none of the candidates are deemed eligible.

The winner may be invited to a meet-and-greet with the donor.

The ranking will be posted on the university website in the section:

<https://www.polimi.it/studenti-iscritti/tasse-borse-e-agevolazioni-economiche/altre-borse-di-studio-e-premi>

art. 5 General rules

Cumulability: the degree award is not cumutable with other awards received for the same dissertation.

Withdrawal/refusal: should the winner withdraw their candidacy or refuse the prize, the prize will be awarded to the candidate immediately following them in the ranking.

Payment: the awarding of the degree award will be communicated to the winner via their official university email address. This communication will come with the relevant forms attached. Within 10 days from receipt of said communication, the winner will have to sign said forms for acceptance and return them.

The prize will be paid in a single payment from the Politecnico di Milano.

Tax status: the payments awarded are subject to taxation, under the legislation in force regarding study awards. The sum paid as a degree award is income regarded as equivalent to that of employment, and as such, it has the same tax status. The taxes, paid by Milano, correspond to the IRAP tax rate of 8.5% of the total of the degree award.
